NOVEMBER SERVICES SUNDAYS 10:30 AM

November 1 Healing Hearts

Rev. Michelle

With so little to be sure of in this world, we have this moment to gather and to fill our hearts with the love of community. The service will also include the Transgender Day of Remembrance.

This month we are sharing the offering with Hearts & Hands, Faith in Action.

NOTE: We are changing how we share the offering. Please make checks payable to Hearts & Hands (NOT UU Amherst) or place cash in an envelope (marked H&H) during the offering throughout the month.

November 8 What's Next?

Rev. Michelle

The midterm election is over. It doesn't matter who 'won' or who 'lost'. What matters is what we do next.

November 15 Music Celebration Sunday

Rev. Michelle & Friends

Come! Invite your friends! Following the election and before the winter holidays, we need a healthy dose of music magic. This service will be just what we need.

November 22 Reclaiming Interdependence: How Communities Built on Mutual Care and Shared Values Can Heal Our Hearts and Our World

Brianna Migliore, Ph.D.

Drawing on insights from her forthcoming book, Dysregulation Nation, Brianna explores how our biology challenges modern ideals of self-sufficiency and how reclaiming our interdependence can offer a path toward healing not only ourselves, but our wounded world.

Dr. Brianna Migliore is a behavioral neuroscientist and author of the forthcoming book Dysregulation Nation: How Our Modern World Is Pushing Our Nervous Systems to the Breaking Point, whose work explores how our social environments shape our brains, behavior, and well-being.

November 29 Question Box Service

Rev. Michelle

What are your questions about Unitarian Universalism? This is your opportunity to ask! You'll find a red box on the table in the Atrium (connected to the Chapel) with some paper to submit your questions

BOARD REPORT

2027 Pledge Drive

Our theme this year is “Meet the Moment” and we hope that you will consider increasing your pledge so that UU Amherst can continue and expand its important work both in our congregation and the broader community.

This year our Generosity Campaign also includes a service component and a program entitled LEND A HAND, GIVE US FIVE. If you’ve ever done volunteer work, you know that a volunteer Hour is often worth far more than a monetary donation. There’s a list of volunteer opportunities available in the lobby – let us know what your choice (s) is and place the form in the LEND A HAND, GIVE US FIVE BOX IN THE lobby. The Board will also follow with a drawing and prizes.

Coffee Hour Support

One of the areas we especially need an assist with is Coffee Hour. Two of our members, Wendy Scott and Ron Palmere have, for several years, graciously made our coffee, put out a variety of snacks, and then stayed for clean-up. We’re hoping to give them both a needed break and sign-up folks who would be responsible for either set-up or clean-up of coffee hour. Wendy and Ron will be available for training for those who haven’t done these tasks before. We’ve added these tasks to the volunteer spreadsheet where folks can commit to Sunday morning activities like Greeter, Usher, etc. If interested, contact Susanne Sardella.

Highlights From October Board Meeting

- The Board approved a non-commercial 48-hour film shoot at the church Nov 13–14.
- Board established a taskforce to weigh solar array options as the current lease ends.
- “A Green Weekend” Book and Gift Sale is scheduled for the weekend of November 14. There will be a preview sale for UU Amherst members on Thursday, 11/19.
- Board meetings will now begin at 7:00 PM, not 7:30 PM on the third Wednesday of the month.

RAINBOW COALITION

November is Transgender Awareness Month

The LGBTQ+ community is entering a crucial month of solemn reflection, active advocacy, and cultural celebration. November 2026 marks a pivotal time, dominated by Transgender Awareness Month and critical efforts to protect basic civil rights amidst a rapidly shifting political landscape.

Throughout this month of Thanksgiving, we are remembering and honoring the lives lost to anti-trans violence. We will highlight in our Weekly Updates current issues impacting the Queer and Transgender communities and how you can take action. Here is an overview on the vigils and celebrations:

Transgender Parent Day, 1st: Celebrating the beautiful diversity of queer families and the unique journeys of trans parents.

Transgender Awareness Week, 13th–19th: Seven days focused on amplifying trans voices, sharing lived experiences, and educating the public on gender diversity.

The Rainbow Cafe at the UUAmherst, 14th: Our gathering will honor the BIPOC (Black & Indigenous People of Color) Transgender community who've survived and thrived through multiple generations and multiple levels of assaults. The Cafe meets the 2nd Saturday of every month at UUAmherst, 1:00-3:00 pm.

Transgender Day of Remembrance, 20th: Somber, deeply significant vigils honoring the transgender and gender-diverse individuals lost to anti-transgender violence will be held throughout WNY. Dates are published in early November. The RC will be holding a vigil at the UUAmherst (details to come).

Locating activities: Local organizations like the Buffalo AKG Art Museum (<https://buffaloakg.org/blog/observing-transgender-day-remembrance>) and the Pride Center of WNY (<https://www.pridecenterwny.org>) coordinate activities, educational programming, and solemn candlelit vigils. Check updates via Pride Center of WNY Facebook Page (<https://www.facebook.com/PrideWNY/>).

ENDOWMENT TRUST

The Endowment Committee met in October and reviewed the 3rd Quarter 2026 numbers with notes from our investment advisor Michael Angelucci.

The value of the Trust as of September 30th was $1,367,888. Our investment portfolio has returned 7.94% since the beginning of the year. The rolling 3-year has a return of 14.42%, and the rolling 5-year is currently 6.61%.

Year to date, the (13) donations received into the Trust have totaled $3,075.

The investment strategy we have in place is 60% Equities to 40% Fixed Income. We invest in ESG Index Funds (ESG = Environmental, Social, and Governance). These funds prioritize investment companies with higher scores in terms of social responsibility issues. Our ESG portfolio continues to perform as well or better than funds without such focus on social concerns.

The next quarterly meeting is January 5th at 6:00 pm in the Emerson Room. Members are welcome to attend. Please contact me or another trustee in advance if you have any questions.

Please consider a gift to the UUCA Endowment Trust; either in the present to honor someone's special contributions or in the future as part of planning one's legacy estate.

–Eric Groat, on behalf of the Endowment Trustees: Ryan Inge, Barry Kent, Tamara Kofke, and Dian Tucker

FAITH DEVELOPMENT

This month's blessing is from the Woven Faith Curriculum:

Covenant makes us feel warm. When we keep our promises to each other...

We feel Welcome.

We feel Accepted.

We feel Rooted.

We feel that we Matter.

Our promises wrap around us like a quilt, helping us feel safe and held by one another.

Kids' Day Well Spent: 11/27

Faith Development is trialing a new seasonal offering to continue the momentum of our Curiosity Week! Kids' Day Well Spent will provide families a fulfilling experience for their children with supervised care on days off from school and some evenings, offering some respite care for parents and caregivers.

Our first day will be Friday, November 27th (the day after Thanksgiving), for kids ages 8 to 15. The program will run from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. with the potential for early drop off or late pickup depending on needs and staff availability. Lunch and snacks will be provided.

The cost of the day program will be $10 per kid just to cover snacks and lunch; scholarships are available and nobody will be turned away due to lack of funds.

(Middle School) Youth Group Call

We are putting an official call out to create a middle-school-aged youth group! Youth between the ages of 10-14 are welcome. If you or your child is interested in this offering, please contact Katie: dfd@uuamherst.org. Once we have some interest gathered, we will look at timing and programming options.

Philosophy & Spirituality

Our next Philosophy & Spirituality circle is scheduled for 12:00 pm on November 15th in the back of the sanctuary. In this monthly drop-in conversation group, we use philosophical prompts to explore individual thoughts about morality, ethics, meaning and more, through the lens of spirituality. Participants of all backgrounds and beliefs are welcome. No philosophy knowledge or RSVP needed.

Call for FD Friends

In the early winter, we will be revitalizing our FD Friends, which aids the Faith Development program on Sunday by providing volunteers to help with childcare, activities, etc.

If you are interested in being an FD Friend, we will have a short introductory session to go over safety policies, program needs, volunteer activities and general info about our time together on Sundays. We will be requiring a background check going forward for FD Friends that do not have children already in the program. If you're interested (this isn't a commitment!), please let Katie know: dfd@uuamherst.org.

Out of Office

Please note I'll be out of the office from 11/5-11/10.

In Community,

JUSTICE ADVOCACY TEAM

At the last Justice Advocacy Team meeting, concerns were expressed during our Community Cares discussion about the families and children currently being left behind as military personnel and Reservists are being called up to active duty. While military families often expect disruption of life and routine as those serving are called away, recently Reservists have seen an increase in deployment. We know that being called up takes at least one parent away, sometimes both. Length of deployment can vary and be unexpectedly extended. Those left behind are left to fill in gaps in the family, tighten financial budgets, and face increased stress.

November is the time of "Thanksgiving". The time of family gatherings and preparing for winter. Military families often struggle more during these times. The Justice Advocacy Team wanted to know who in the community helps these families; what mutual aid organizations are there that we could support and show them our community cares. We found four such organizations as we began to look at this concern and would like to share this info with you so we all can reach out to help.

GREEN JUSTICE TEAM

The Big Event! The first plot of our Homegrown National Park project of nativizing the UUCA campus was prepared on Indigenous Peoples' Day, Monday, October 12, by a crew of Green Justice Team members and friends. About twelve people turned up to mark the space just behind the basketball court to the right of the wide existing path. We then laid flattened cardboard boxes and covered them with partly composted wood chips from the piles to the right of the parking lot. Later this fall, when the cardboard has started to break down, seeds may be planted right on top – seeds which must over-winter before they sprout.

The rationale for this comes from the Homegrown National Park project, the brainchild of Dr. Douglas Tallamy of the University of Delaware, a dedicated environmentalist who advocates nativizing increasing amounts of territory, person by person. By planting native plants and reducing invasives, the vanishing species of insects, birds, other animals, and humans will be supported and the local/regional biome (ecosystem). This is a slow process but an exciting venture for the health of the planet. See homegrownnationalpark.org and read Nature's Best Hope: A New Approach to Conservation that Starts in Your Back Yard.

What's next is eradicating the invasive weeds that surround our target areas. This is done by mowing and weeding over several years – it takes two cycles of seasons for introduced natives to start crowding them out. Persistent Person Power is needed! This can be done any time of year that the weather permits.

GJT Projects – are you inspired? To join the effort, talk to any Green team member during coffee hour – just ask around – or find Wendy Scott, Ron Palmere, Laurie Kasnicki, Jill Fondiller, Debi Maxey, Michele Bjella . . . Ask about what else we do!

–Wendy Scott

AMHERST LITTLE FREE PANTRY

Thank you to everyone who supported our New Moon Dance & Treat (aka Witch Dance) on October 10! We had 12 "trunks" for Trunk or Treat (including the Landolt family, Mark Peggy Cook, the Terhune boys, Wendy Lettieri and Liz Duncan, Karen, Doreen Park, Anne Ford and Maddie, Ruth Bowen, Cathy Jones, and Nan). Sharron Border was here for set-up. Suzanne Christ and Joan Sillman staffed the welcome table. Rev. Michelle presented the prizes for best costumes and trunk decor. Valerie Staats and JoJo Vacanti monitored access inside the building. Paul Evans directed traffic and tended our bonfire. Ruth Bowen sold refreshments. Betty Crump helped with clean up. Special thanks to our Wild Witches of Williamsville: Kim Diana, Laurie, Bev, Hilary, Katie L, Marlana, Ellen M, John, Linda, Kathy M, Meg (our lead witch and choreographer), Kim D who practiced with us, and to the dancers of Be Witched Buffalo. We received 46 items as food donations in addition to monetary donations.

We're grateful for our ongoing relationship with the Keshet Inclusion Open Arms program at Temple Beth Tzedek. They invited our directors to their Sukkot celebration on September 30 and collected 129 items for the pantry (valued at $220).

WNY Food 4 Paws, Kreher Family Farms, and Peanut Butter and Jelly (Lockport HQ) provided specialized stock during October.

As wintry weather approaches, the pantry team is thinking about insulated storage for our stock. We're seeking a dorm size refrigerator (which doesn't need to work, as it won't be connected to electricity) to supplement the insulated wooden box already built into our cabinet.

We tried moving our meetings away from Sundays after service, but it hasn't been successful. Instead, we'll start meeting once per quarter. Join us next on Sunday, December 6, at 12:15 pm in the Library/Living Room.

–Marie Evans, Chair

We'll be fulfilling Wish Lists Gateway's Holiday Hope campaign again this year. (Gateway Longview is a youth services agency, with a teen facility right next door to The U.) Watch for an all-church email with details, and look for the names and ages on a Giving Tree in the lobby in early November. Expected spending is $75–$100 per child. In many cases, these are the only holiday gifts they will receive, so you're encouraged to purchase the specifically requested items rather than gift cards. You're encouraged to provide gift bags and wrapping, but all donations must be unwrapped for staff review prior to distribution to the families.

THEATER LOVERS

Our group outing to The Last Yiddish Speaker at Jewish Repertory Theatre is Sunday, November 1. The discount order form in UU Amherst's lobby is valid for Thursday or Sunday performances throughout the play's run.

The Last Yiddish Speaker* Special Events

If you wish to attend any of these special events please contact Adam Yellen directly at: ayellen@jccbuffalo.org or 716-650-7626.

Panel Discussion Wednesday, Nov. 18 at 6:30 pm

Guests will discuss the play's exploration of Jewish identity, language, memory, antisemitism, and the importance of preserving culture in the face of intolerance. The conversation will also offer a behind-the-scenes look at bringing Deborah Zoe Laufer's timely play to the JRT stage, followed by an opportunity for audience questions.

Stage to Screen (movie): Denial Monday, Nov. 23 at 7:00 pm

Based on a remarkable true story, Denial follows historian Deborah Lipstadt, who is sued for libel by Holocaust denier David Irving and must defend the historical truth of the Holocaust in a British courtroom.

Life & Legacy Talkback Sunday, Nov. 22

(post-show, for those with tickets to that day's performance)
